COLLEGE LIFTOFF

3 Sessions $ 1,500

Want your students and parents to understand the ABCs of the college admissions process? How they should work to make themselves competitive for any type of college, whether it be a flagship state university or prestigious private college? If this sounds appealing, then allow VIDAL to serve hundreds of your students and parents by way of three two-hour sessions!

SHOW ME THE MONEY

Ah, yes. Money. It matters. It talks. And everyone is looking for it with respect to college. This information session (2x) will help students and parents understand university-wide scholarships, departmental scholarships, FAFSA, CSS Profile, how to request more aid from colleges, and which third-party scholarship resources are best. Subsequently, three evening FAFSA Completion workshops will be held, thereby totaling 5 total sessions of support!

TEST PREP PREPARATION

3 Sessions $ 1,500

Huh? Students need to prep for their test prep?! Indeed they do! Since colleges have no preference between the SAT or ACT, it first makes sense to identify which test is best for you. Thus, This information session will first compare and contrast these exams, then explore how to prepare for each exam by examining pitfalls, understanding what qualifies as a legitimate test prep regimen, and knowing which resources are best to utilize. Three one-and-a-half-hour sessions.

SUMMER BOOT CAMP

15 hours $ 5,000

If you're looking to provide high-level support to your best students, then our summer boot camp can help your students move the needle. Over the course of their 5-days, they will learn how to construct their main college essay, strategically attack supplemental essays, support their teachers in the writing of recs, developing a resume, thoughtfully completing their CommonApp Activities list, and more! A 20-hour boot camp will serve 30 students. If you'd like to serve another 30, the cost of their boot camp will drop to just $2500!
